v.

WELLS FARGO BANK,
Defendant.

Case No. 19-cv-01224-DMR

ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITHOUT PREJUDICE FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

Pro se Plaintiff Gerard E. Wyatt filed a complaint and an application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”). [Docket Nos. 1, 3.] On May 24, 2019, the court granted the IFP application and screened the complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e), and ordered Plaintiff to file an amended complaint addressing the deficiencies identified in the order by June 14, 2019. [Docket No. 9.] The court warned Plaintiff that failure to file a timely amended complaint could result in dismissal of the action. See id. Plaintiff did not file an amended complaint. Accordingly, this matter is hereby dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
